

CINERARY URN INSCRIBED FOR SEPTICIA BEGNINA

Roman, 1st century AD
Marble
H.: 39 cm. - W.: 28 cm. - D.: 24,5 cm.
Restored in the 18th century

PROVENANCE:

In the gardens of William Hamilton (1764-1817), in England, in the late 18th century, seen by the Dutch lawyer and diplomat Nicolas Calkoen (1753-1817) and mentioned by the rector of Utrecht University, Christoph Sax (1714-1806).

Former Belgian Collection until 2019.

